

APPLICATION FOR THE LARRY HORAN – JIM LANGLEY SCHOLARSHIP AND JACK VAN ZANDER SCHOLARSHIP

PART II -- PERSONAL ESSAY

The Larry Horan – Jim Langley Scholarship and the Jack Van Zander Scholarship are to be awarded to entering Cal students who have demonstrated excellence in some or all of the categories of leadership, scholarship, athletics and other extra-curricular activities, and community service. An applicant's financial need will also be taken into consideration.

In an essay of up to 1500 words, please respond to the following two prompts.

1. Describe your major accomplishments to date, both in school and out of school, as well as examples of any or all of your personal qualities, strengths, talents, awards, and life experiences that you think qualify you for this scholarship.
2. Which of your current activities, if any, do you plan to continue to engage in at Cal? Are there any new activities that you are looking forward to pursuing at Cal? Which of your skills, talents, and strengths will you bring to those activities at Cal?
